

Advent team to trek '24 peaks in 24 hours'

On 11 and 12 July, eleven of Advent's finest athletes will undertake a 24 peak hiking challenge in the Lake District to raise money for Cancer Research UK.

Lloyd's insurer Advent is no stranger to ambitious charity challenges having last year completed a cycle challenge from York to London which raised an impressive sum of over £10,000 for the Alzheimer's Society.

This year, the team hopes to equal if not better last year's donations in aid of Cancer Research UK by scaling 24 summits each over 2'400ft in 24 hours, split over two 12 hour days. The Advent team comprises Laura Goldsworthy, Jason Woods, Luke Sanders, Alex Reynolds, Patrick Haddow, Richard Wayman, Adrian Wright, Scott Roseker, Chris Ioannou, Sandra Esteves and Leanne Tourish.

Advent's CEO Nigel Fitzgerald said: "This is no mean feat and the team go with our wholehearted support, admiration and very best wishes. The Cancer Research UK is an excellent charity which we are proud to support."
